HEAVENLY HANDEL'S

Ooh, this ice cream is good. The Ohio-based Handel's Homemade Ice Cream and Yogurt company makes frozen treats as homemade and fresh-tasting as if they were prepared on your back porch. The company was founded in 1945 by Alice Handel, who used fruit from her own yard and blended flavors in a machine at her husband's gas station; current owners stick to Handel's homestyle, high standards.

With more than 50 flavors to choose from, Handel's offers several chocolate temptations, like chocolate marshmallow, chocoholic chunk, choco-chip cookie dough, and the signature chocolate pecan. With seven locations in Ohio and Pennsylvania, Handel's doesn't have a mail-order division, but will ship their ice cream to homesick Ohioites and other eager devotees. (330-759-1442)
